4. COMPREHENSION

4-A. Three Days at Snake River

The Masons' payday was May 15. They put their checks in the bank and paid their bills. They went away for the last three days in May.

Jane and Pete went to Snake River. They had fun there. They fished in the river. They played in the water. They picked up pretty rocks.

When they came back, Pete said, "We spent a hundred dollars. But it was fun."

1. Where did the Masons go?

   ____ a. To the lake

   ____ b. To Snake River

   ____ c. Shopping

2. What did the Masons do there? Write your answer in a sentence.

3. Did they have fun?

   ____ a. Yes

   ____ b. No

4. How much did they spend? _____

4-B. Fire at Home

It was late at night. Joe Stone was home alone. He was smoking in bed while he watched TV. Joe went to sleep with his cigarette in his hand. The bed burned, and smoke filled the air.

Joe's puppy woke Joe up. Joe picked up his puppy and ran into the cold night. He ran next door and phoned the fire department.

The fire truck arrived quickly. The men and women put water on the fire. The people from the fire department saved Joe Stone's home. Joe thanked the people and his puppy.

Read these six sentences.
What happened first? Put a 1 by that sentence.
In what order did the other things happen?
Put a number by each sentence to show the right order.

____ Joe went to sleep.

____ Joe was smoking in bed.

____ The fire was put out.

____ The puppy woke Joe up.

____ The bed started burning.

____ Joe called the fire department.
